

MEMBERSHIP FORM

The Printmakers Council was founded in 1965 to promote the art of printmaking and the work of contemporary printmakers.

It has as its mission statement:

To promote the use of both traditional and innovative printmaking techniques by:

- holding exhibitions of prints
- providing information on prints and printmaking to both its membership and the public
- encouraging co-operation and exchanges between members, other associations and interested individuals.

Information and 'Imprint', PMC's newsletter is sent out to members approximately 4 times a year and the office is open for enquiries every Wednesday from 2-6pm.
